Hesperia, California

WHAT: An unpublished early translation of a discourse given by H.H. Dorje Chang Buddha III in 2007 in response to the question, “What is the truth of Buddha-nature?” What followed was the Dharma of understanding definitive truth or true suchness.

This discourse takes the form of a dialogue between H.H. Dorje Chang Buddha III and a wise being who wanted to understand and realize the meaning of truth. The wise being’s questions included: matters related to the incarnation of holy beings; the use of skillful or expedient means in Buddhism; the powers and nature of Buddhas and Bodhisattvas; who the Venerable Vimalakirti (Dorje Chang II) was; who H.H. Dorje Chang Buddha III is; the nature of the four immeasurable minds (the Brahma-viharas); and more.

Zhaxi Zhuoma Rinpoche will read from an unpublished early English translation of The Sutra on Understanding Ultimate Truth and share her notes from translations of the Buddha Master’s commentary on His discourse and provide references from other writings by His Holiness. The Rinpoche is a senior disciple of the Buddha Master having followed Him for over twenty years.
